OUR PROGRAM FOR MAY 25TH:

SONOMA'S HANNA BOYS CENTER

AN UPDATE FROM SCHOOL PRINCIPAL DENNIS CRANDALL

FLAMINGO RESORT HOTEL, WEDNESDAY, 12:00 NOON

Nestled in the heart of the peaceful Sonoma Valley, Hanna Boys Center has been providing a “haven of hope” for struggling young men since 1949. Serving troubled boys between the ages of 13 and 18, the center was conceived as a residential school for underprivileged youth. It now caters to at-risk boys with a variety of challenges. Principal Dennis Crandall will conduct our tour and bring us up to date on Sonoma Valley’s 60 year old tradition of caring for disadvantaged young boys.

BIG WHEELS

Past President (1967-68) Charles R. Bartley will fill in at next Wednesday's meeting for lame duck president Don McMillan, who is attending the Rotary International Convention in New Orleans with his Rotary wife, Jackie McMillan. Most of us old-timers fondly remember Chuck's raucous sense of humor some years ago when he was the master of ceremonies of our annual Family Trivia Challenge, but only Chuck remembers when he last mounted the stage in the Flamingo Ballroom and presided over this 89-year-old Rotary Club of Santa Rosa. No doubt Mr. Bartley will enlighten us about a few Rotary meetings and some trivia from the sixties and seventies. He has been a member of our club for more than half a century—almost as long as Past President (1965-66) Bill Pedersen (who joined in 1954).

I wonder...does either Bill or Chuck know what happened to the infamous revolving Rotary Wheel that made the news in early 1975? It was huge—62½ inches in diameter, made of wood, metal, and plywood—developed by the talented skills of Bartley and fellow Rotarian Duane Bennett, who as in the lumber business. An electric motor turned the blue and gold replica of the Rotary Wheel at four revolutions per minute. It was quite spectacular and the talk of Santa Rosa for years as the wheel showed up at Rotary events around town. Maybe Chuck has a photograph or some newspaper clippings to show us. In between his jokes and the traditional recognitions.

ROTARIAN MAGAZINE QUIZ MAY, 2011

Who has meetings with a twist?
Answer on page 31

Speaking of humor, Chuck remembers the shortest Rotary program ever: a joint meeting of the only Rotary Clubs in Santa Rosa—our club and Rotary West. The guest speaker was Sally Stanford, who was the most famous resident of the North Bay during the 20th Century. After Luther Burbank and before Sparky Schulz. Back in the Roaring Twenties, she was the last grand madam of San Francisco's high-toned bordellos, one of the few of her profession who was elected mayor of a U.S. city. In 1950 she opened a Victorian restaurant in Sausalito and bought a 50 acre ranch in Sonoma County out on highway 12 near Glen Ellen. On the big day, Rotarians, their wives, and guests overflowed the Flamingo ballroom to hear Sally Stanford. She opened by asking for questions from the floor. The first question came from a woman guest who stood up, introduced herself, and asked Sally if her husband had ever visited her establishment. Sally answered “No” and sat down after only three and a half minutes. Chuck swears that was the highlight of his Rotary presidency.

PROGRAM

Jill Hunting was only 15 when she and her family were informed of her brother’s death in the early days of the Vietnam War. It was a moment many families had to go through in those days and each dealt with it in their own ways. But it wasn’t until years later, when that 15 year old girl had grown up into a journalist and a soon to be writer that she would finally get to know the man that was her brother Pete.

Years after Pete’s death, Jill and her family stumbled onto a series of correspondence from Pete while he was away. Through these letters Jill began to learn where he had traveled, why he had been there and whom he had spoken with. In time Jill realized she wanted to travel to Vietnam, to the same places Pete had been. In her travels she began to see more of the young man who left his country to help teach English but ended up doing construction instead. She met the small girl he had escorted to and from a local market so she could sell her goods. And she was able to speak with those who came to know this American in their country and the kindness he showed them.

Jill’s experience brought her closer to her brother. Inspired by her experiences in Vietnam and in visiting the Vietnam Memorial in Washington, D.C. she is currently working to dedicate a monument to the civilians lost in wars, much like her brother Pete. It is to be called the “Book of Remembrance” and will consist of a closed book in the Washington National Mall. We wish you best of luck in this endeavor Jill, and thank you for sharing your story with our club.
