

Education in Developing Countries

Question 1 - What are existing initiatives we can build on and scale up?

Rotoplast program, but for teachers

More toilets to keep girls in school

School buildings

Schools from richer countries sponsor schools from poorer countries. (fundraising, awareness, learn about their culture, pen pals)

More social media awareness of what Rotary is doing or trying to do

Rotary clubs can sponsor a school in a developing country. Scholarships, Supplies,

District focuses on a country or region for a period of time. All clubs focused on one area.

Sponsor scholarships in schools in another country

Microgrants to families that encourage self-sustainability

Question 2 - What are some organizations we can collaborate with to make our ambitions more effective?

Collaborate with Tech companies (Tech companies sponsoring Tech Education)

Partner with Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation when Polio is eradicated

Involve Rotoract in International Projects - partner with Rotary clubs

Rotary clubs partner with small business to collaborate on Intl project

Question 3 - How can teachers in our clubs play a part in trying to solve this problem?

How can we collaborate with local schools towards it?

Teachers on Loan program / Teacher Exchange program

Encourage Teachers to join Rotary – they can help Rotary solve education related issues

High School Teachers could have a class engage in a Rotary project...(Engineering related, Earth Science related, ..)