

SRJC TODAY & TOMORROW

THE ROTARY CLUB OF SANTA ROSA – AUGUST 17

DR. FRANK CHONG

IN PERSON VS ONLINE

- Summer 2021 12% in person
- Fall 2021 32% in person
- Spring 2022 40% in person
- Summer 2022 37% in person
- Fall 2022 60% in person

FALL 2022 IN PERSON

- 60% of classes are in-person
- All services are in-person
 - Transfer Center
 - Welcome & Connect Center
 - DRD Testing Center
 - IGNITE & Second Chance
 - Queer Resource Center
 - Sawubona Black Student Success Center

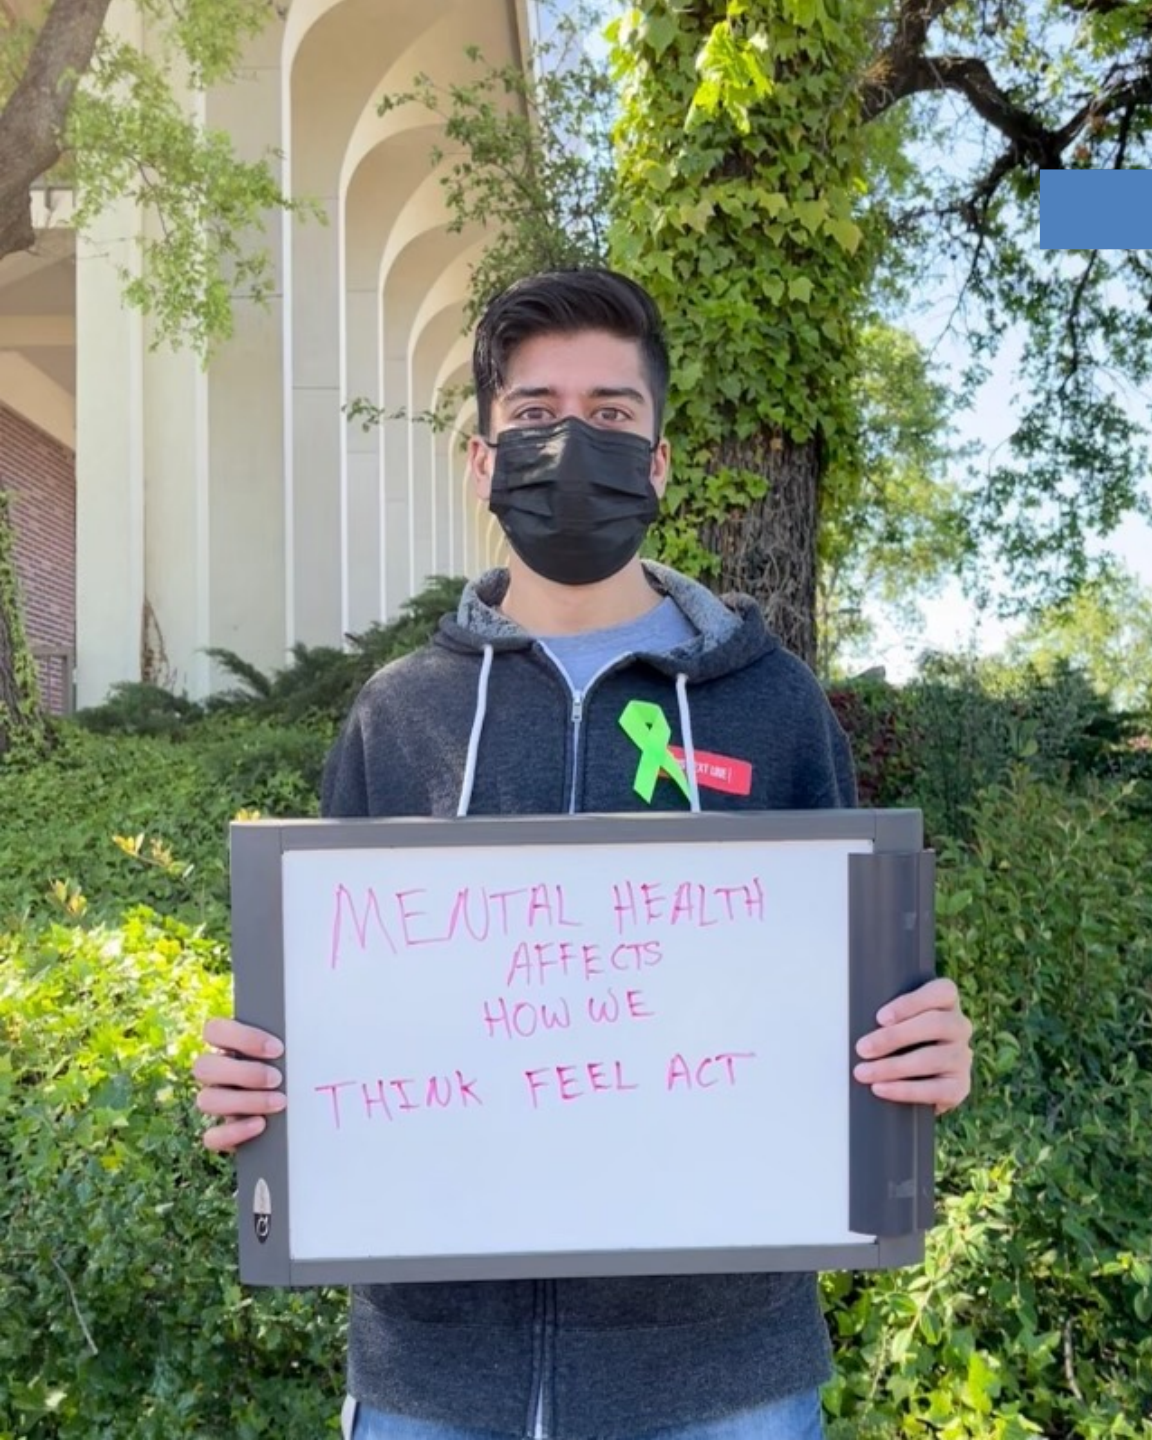

CURRICULUM

- Creation of Ethnic Studies
- Expansion of Fire Fighter Program and Creation of Wildfire Prevention Program
- Creation of Construction Center in Petaluma
- Expansion of Fashion Studies in Petaluma
- Expansion of Vet Tech Program in Petaluma
- Expansion of Courses at Shone Farm

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL AID

- $2.6 million in Frank P. and Polly O'Meara Doyle Scholarship funds
- $1.5 million in SRJC Foundation scholarships
- Emergency Grants:
 - $250K allocated to purchase loaner laptops for students
 - $330K from donations directly to 570 students with community's help
 - $10M to more than 6,000 students since spring of 2020 including federal and state grants
 - Expanded Doyle scholarship to part-time and international students for the first time in SRJC history
- Created Sawubona Black Student Scholarship; more than $85,000 in the fund and growing
- Provided fresh produce, pantry items and $50 grocery cards to more than 1,400 students since fall 2020 through partnership with Redwood Empire Food Bank
- Loaned more than 1100 laptops and nearly 800 hotspots

LEVERAGING COMMUNITY AND GRANT SUPPORT

- $1m grant from Kaiser Permanente for Student Housing
- $2,8m five-year grant from US Department of Education; Title V HSI (Hispanic Serving Institution) which began in October 2020.
- $4,6m five-year grant from US Department of Education; HSI beginning October 1, 2021.
- $500,000 in funds from The Sonoma County Board of Supervisors for fire prevention programs.
- $8m over 10 years, or $805,000 annually, for mental health services at SRJC from Measure O.
- Over $7.1m award from US Department of Commerce for Construction Training Center, Petaluma.
- $6m infusion from PG&E for the Wildfire Prevention Program
- $15m from the State for Student Housing

COVID-19 IMPACT

- Pandemic had a negative impact on enrollment.
- Students identified following themes as negative impacts on enrollment due to the pandemic:
 - Financial Problems
 - Housing Insecurity
 - Difficulty Engaging in Online Instruction
 - Mental Health
- Those themes consistently prominent with our students of color, first generation students, and students with financial need.

BURBANK AUDITORIUM MODERNIZATION - COMPLETED

KUNDE HALL - COMPLETED

PETALUMA CAMPUS WELCOME CENTER - COMPLETED

SRJC PETALUMA

PETALUMA CAMPUS SCIENCE ADDITION - COMPLETED

SANTA ROSA
JUNIOR COLLEGE

PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING CENTER MULTIPURPOSE BUILDING - COMPLETED

KAD PROJECT – COMPLETED

CONSTRUCTION CENTER, PETALUMA CAMPUS

PUBLIC SAFETY TRAINING CENTER

TAUZER GYMNASIUM RENOVATION

LINDLEY CENTER FOR STEM EDUCATION

SRJC FOUNDATION

STUDENT HOUSING: PERSPECTIVE FROM THE EAST

STUDENT HOUSING: PERSPECTIVE FROM THE SOUTHEAST

STUDENT HOUSING: AERIAL PERSPECTIVE

STUDENT HOUSING: INTERIOR PERSPECTIVES – LOBBY, GREAT ROOM & TRADITIONAL DOUBLE ROOM

STUDENT HOUSING: INTERIOR PERSPECTIVES – COMMON KITCHENS

STUDENT HOUSING: INTERIOR PERSPECTIVES – STUDY SPACES

STUDENT HOUSING: CONSTRUCTION

SHONE FARM – PORTABLES, GREENHOUSE, PRODUCE PROCESSING

